

Charles Emond

Partner

Title

Partner - Tax & Accounting at Grant Thornton Luxembourg.

Experience

Charles is Tax and Legal advisor and has been collaborating with Grant Thornton since early 2008.

Previous professional experiences during 8 years in a big 4 firm and during 15 years in large international banks and financial firms, mainly in charge of a financial engineering team, dealing with large corporate clients and high net worth individuals.

Sector experience

Charles has essentially tax and financial skills on an international basis.

He has worked essentially with large clients (both corporate and individual) on an international level using mainly, but not exclusively, European structures, with or without Luxembourg base.

He has a broad experience in providing advisory services to investment funds, management companies / investment companies, or holding companies of such investment funds, for both private and institutional structures.

While dealing with, and accompanying, clients throughout their national and international group structures with a view to optimizing returns and creating synergies, he has achieved a broad knowledge and experience in credit instruments, structured finance, asset based financing, intellectual property management, and all deriving tax aspects.

Presentations and publications

Charles has published various articles concerning Luxembourg tax law in professional reviews and magazines.
